NATA By Laws, Article I, Membership

1. Any reputable person, firm, partnership, Association or other form of organization or business enterprise directly connected with or engaged in transportation of persons or property by air in northern Canada or engaged in allied or related industries, including other modes of transportation ("an Eligible Member"), shall be eligible for membership in this Association. An Eligible Member may only become or remain a member of the Association ("a Member") by executing an agreement to abide by the By-Laws of the Association and by paying dues and assessments as provided herein. The classes of membership shall be as hereinafter provided.
2. OPERATOR MEMBER: Any Member licensed by the Canadian Transportation Agency, operating a commercial air service and holding a valid Operating Certificate issued by Transport Canada.
3. ASSOCIATE MEMBER: Any Member engaged in a business allied or related to or otherwise interested in transportation by air shall be eligible to be an Associate Member in the Association.
4. SUSTAINING MEMBER: Any Member not otherwise eligible for membership as an Operator Member or Associate Member, engaged in a business or by a governmental agency allied or related to, or otherwise associated with, transportation by air, including pilots and mechanics employed by an active Member, shall be eligible to be a Sustaining Member in the Association. It is not the intention that a Sustaining Member represent any organization eligible to be an Operator or Associate Member.
5. HONORARY LIFE MEMBER: An individual who has consistently supported and contributed significantly to the association and its' goals and principals. Nominations for Honorary Life Members are made directly to the Board Of Directors and the decision to award it to an individual rests solely with the Board of Directors.
6. AFFILIATE ASSOCIATION: Any allied association whose functions are associated with aviation.
7. APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP: Application for membership in the Association shall be made in such form as may be established by the Board of Directors from time to time and shall be accompanied by such initiation fees and dues as may be prescribed by these By-Laws or by regulation of the Board of Directors from time to time.
8. WITHDRAWAL OR EXPULSION: Any Member may withdraw from the Association by giving sixty (60) days written notice of intention to do so and by making payment of all obligations due the Association to the effective date of withdrawal. Annual fees are not refundable.
 - a) Any Member may be suspended or expelled for failure to promptly pay any and all dues and assessments owing to the Association.
 - b) No Member under suspension from this Association shall be permitted to exercise any privileges of membership until all matters concerning such suspension have been satisfactorily settled and all monies due the Association have been paid.
 - c) Any Member acting in any way that breaches the by-laws, or rules and regulations of the Association, or which may be unethical or prejudicial to the purposes of the Association, may be suspended or expelled from membership by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of all members of the Board.
